Future developments, Information about developments affecting Form W-9 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) is at www.irs.gov/fw9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return, Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)
- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)

Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding? on page 2.

By signing the filled-out form, you:

- 1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
  - 2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- 3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and
- 4. Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct. See What is FATCA reporting? on page 2 for further information.

1. FORM USE

- (a) Blanket Exemption Certificate: Use for a series of, or in anticipation of a series of transactions. Do not use in single transactions. This certificate may be used with the lease of a motor vehicle which qualifies for exemption under the Tax Reform Code of 1971. The seller or lessor must file and retain this certificate, together with copies of all invoices and/or other related documents, for at least three years from the end of the year in which the last sale or lease occurs.
- (b) Unit Exemption Certificate: Use for single transactions only. The seller or lessor must: (1) attach this certificate to his/her copy of the invoice or any other document fully describing the leased or sold property (list date, name and address of the purchaser or lessee and the purchase or rental price) or (2) reproduce the certificate wording onto a document which gives all the required information (date, name, etc.).

2. REPRODUCTION OF FORM

This form may be reproduced but, when submitted, must contain the same information and characteristics as appear in the Department's form.

3. DATE OR ACCEPTANCE AND VALIDITY

This Certificate and Declaration must be dated and be in the physical possession of the seller or lessor on or before the 60th day following the date of the sale or lease. After the 60th day, the seller or lessor is required to establish, by satisfactory evidence, that the sale or lease was in fact exempt.

NOTE: This form may be used in conjunction with form REV-1715, Exempt Organization Declaration of Sales Tax Exemption, which is optional when a purchase of $200 or more is made by a nonprofit organization whose first two digits of the Sales Tax License Number begin with 75 (example 75-00000-0).
